

The Light of the World

Make a design or picture to illustrate a quote from the Word about light:

- The people who walked in darkness have seen a great light (Isaiah 9:2).
- “I am the light of the world. He who follows Me shall not walk in darkness...” (John 8:12).
- “I have come as a light into the world, that whoever believes in Me should not abide in darkness” (John 12:46).
- Come and let us walk in the light of the Lord (Isaiah 2:5).
- Your word is a lamp to my feet and a light to my path (Psalm 119:105).
- The Lord will be to you an everlasting light (Isaiah 60:19).

Materials:

dark paper

light colored crayon, oil pastel, or chalk

Procedure:

1. Use the light colored crayon (or oil pastel or chalk) to draw on dark colored paper.
2. Make your design or picture fit with the quotation. If it is a prophecy, you could illustrate its fulfillment instead. Examples include:

People who walked in darkness—people walking toward a large, bright light (for Is. 9:2).

I am the light of the world—the Lord with light all around Him (for John 8:12).

I have come as a light into the world—the baby Lord in a manger (John 12:46).

Your word is a lamp to my feet and a light to my path—light around the Word.

3. The light colored drawing will show up well on the dark paper.
4. Neatly print the quotation below or above the picture. (Provide text slips for little ones.)
