

The Talents

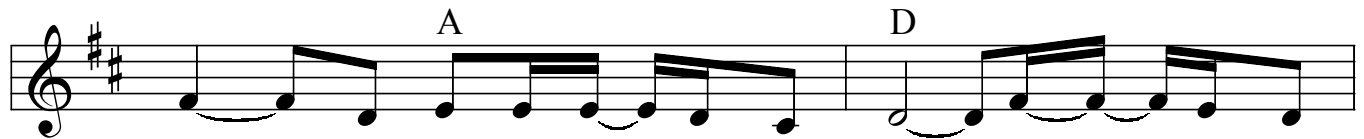

560

Based on Matthew 25: 14-30

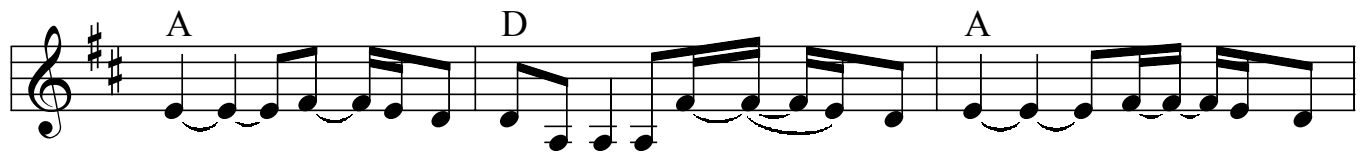

Lori Odhner

1-3. Well done, good and faith - ful ser - vant, well done! Well
4. Cast out that wic - ked ser - vant, cast out! Cast done, good and faith - ful ser - vant, well done! You have been out that wic - ked ser - vant, cast out! To him who faith - ful o - ver a lit - tle, So I will set you o - ver much has, more will be giv - en; From him who has not, will be ta - ken a - more, That you may en - ter in - to my joy. 1. A way That you may ev - 'ry - thing that he has. 2. The

3. I

mas - ter went on a jour - ney, Called his ser - vants by their mas - ter, he went a - way, And they tra - ded while he was knew you were a hard man, Reap - ing where you did not skills. To the first man he gave five ta - lents, To the gone. The first man, he earned five ta - lents, And the sow. And so I was fright - ened, And I se - cond man, he gave two, To the last man, he gave one. se - cond man, he earned two. But the last man hid it in the ground.

hid the ta - lent in the ground. And here you have what is yours.