

Creation Poem

By Christine Taylor

God made the light,
Then the sky,  rain  and sea.
Then He made land
For you  and for me.

He made flowers and grass,
And fruit  on the tree,
Then the sun  and the moon
And the stars  that we see.

Then He made fish
And flying birds  too,
And all  kinds of animals
We see at the zoo.

And last, He made people;
He'd finished  His plan,
And He gave  the whole earth
To this woman and man.

He'd made all that we need
Then God had a rest,
And all His creation
He lovingly blest.

Verbal Explanation of the Hand Motions

Picture Light 	Description Energetic motion	Picture Moon 	Description Make a circle to the side of head
Picture Sky 	Description Looking up	Picture Stars 	Description Make fingers "twinkle"
Picture Sea 	Description Wave-like motion	Picture Fish 	Description Wiggling hand movements
Picture Rain 	Description Finger rain falling	Picture Birds 	Description Link thumbs together and flap hands
Picture Land 	Description Cross and uncross arms	Picture All 	Description Outward movement indicating many
Picture You 	Description Hands towards another person	Picture Animals 	Description Brief animal movements
Picture Me 	Description Hands towards self	Picture People 	Description Use of arms indicates two beings
Picture Grass 	Description Upward hand motion	Picture Finished 	Description Outward movement indicating "finished"
Picture Fruit 	Description Hands appear to hold fruit	Picture Gave 	Description Holding a gift and then giving it forward in a generous gesture
Picture Tree 	Description Arms make branches	Picture Rest 	Description Hands crossed, eyes closed
Picture Sun 	Description Arms form circle above head	Picture Blest 	Description Arms up like a benediction