

Give the Glory to God

Give unto the Lord the glory due to His name;
Worship the Lord in the beauty of holiness.
(Psalm 29:2)

It is good to thank people who do kind things for you. And it is appropriate to accept the thanks that other people may offer you. But we should remember—deep down—that all good and truth come from the Lord. It is He who inspires all of us to do good things. To help us reflect on this concept, you may want to try the following. Think of people to whom you feel gratitude for something they have done for you, talked with you about, or shown you by the way they live their lives. Then write about your gratitude, framing it in this way—at least in your own mind. This an effective way to give the glory to God!

"I am grateful to _____ for helping me see the Lord's love when he/she_____."

"I am grateful to _____ for helping me understand the Lord's truth about_____."

Here are some spaces in which you can try using this framework to express your gratitude. Or you could use another piece of paper.
